

EXHIBIT A

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re: Oral Phenylephrine Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation

Case No. 1:23-md-3089
MDL No. 3089

[PROPOSED] ORDER APPOINTING
PLAINTIFFS' LEADERSHIP
STRUCTURE AND APPOINTING RULE
23(g) INTERIM CLASS COUNSEL

On December 6, 2023, the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (JPML) transferred to this Court for coordinated pretrial proceedings certain actions relating to the marketing and sales practices for Oral Phenylephrine. Those proceedings are now styled as “In re: Oral Phenylephrine Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation.”

On December 21, 2023, the Court directed the parties to complete a proposed Case Management Order. See Dkt. No. 5. On February 9, 2024, the Consensus Plaintiffs<sup>1</sup> filed a Motion for an Order Appointing Plaintiffs' Proposed Leadership Structure seeking the appointment of case leadership structure, pursuant to the Manual for Complex Litigation (4th ed. 2005) (the “Manual”), and the appointment of the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee (“PEC”) as Interim Class Counsel, pursuant to Rule 23(g)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

In multidistrict litigation such as this, to coordinate the prosecution of complex litigation, the Court is empowered to appoint counsel to lead the case. According to the Manual, the function of the plaintiffs' leadership structure is to “promote efficiency,” “avoid unruly proceedings,” and

<sup>1</sup> At the time the motion was filed, there were approximately 70 Plaintiffs' firms involved in this MDL, representing plaintiffs in the related cases before this Court. They reached near unanimous agreement on the Proposed Leadership Structure and are referred to herein as the “Consensus Plaintiffs.”

“clarify responsibility for protecting the interests of the class during precertification proceedings.” See In re Parking Heaters Memorandum Antitrust Litig., 310 F.R.D. 54, 56 (E.D.N.Y. 2015) (quoting Manual § 21.11).

Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(g)(3) provides for the appointment of Interim Class Counsel, “to act on behalf of the putative class before determining whether to certify the action as a class action.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(3). In designating Interim Class Counsel, the Court must consider: (i) the work counsel has undertaken in investigating potential claims; (ii) counsel’s experience in handling class actions and other complex litigation; (iii) counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law; and (iv) the resources that counsel will commit to representing the class. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g)(1)(A).

Having reviewed and considered the motion, brief, and supporting declarations from counsel,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

A. Appointment of Plaintiffs’ Leadership Structure

Plaintiffs’ proposed two-tier leadership structure meets all requirements for appointment, and is approved. Counsel have demonstrated they are qualified and responsible and will fairly and adequately represent Plaintiffs and the other Class members. See Manual § 10.220. Counsel have further demonstrated that they have the resources, commitment, and ability to command respect of their colleagues and work cooperatively with all plaintiffs’ counsel, opposing counsel, and the Court. See Manual § 10.224.

Further, counsel have demonstrated that they have: (1) a willingness and ability to commit to a time-consuming litigation and settlement process; (2) the ability to work cooperatively with others; (3) professional experience in this type of litigation; and (4) access to sufficient resources to advance the litigation in a timely manner.

The Court hereby appoints the following attorneys to serve as “Plaintiffs’ Executive Committee” (“PEC”)<sup>2</sup>:

B. Executive Committee Duties and Responsibilities

Plaintiffs' Executive Committee shall assume responsibility for the following duties:

1. Directing, coordinating, and supervising prosecution of Plaintiffs' and the other Class members' claims, including the drafting and filing of any amended/consolidated class action complaint, the briefing of any motion to dismiss by any Defendant(s), as well as any class certification motion, and any matters pertaining thereto;
2. Determining (in consultation with the PSC) and presenting to the Court and Defendants Plaintiffs' position in the litigation on all matters, substantive and procedural, arising from these proceedings;
3. Organizing, initiating, and conducting discovery, including, without limitation:
  - a. coordinating discovery with Defendants' counsel;
  - b. preparing and finalizing written interrogatories, requests for production of documents, and requests for admission;
  - c. directing and coordinating the examination of witnesses in depositions;
and

d. retaining, coordinating the selection of, and preparing experts.

4. Communicating with the Court;
5. Communicating with Defendants' counsel;
6. Entering into stipulations with Defendants' counsel, as necessary;
7. Conducting any trial(s) and appeals in this litigation;
8. Informing other Plaintiffs' counsel of the progress of the litigation and seeking consultation where necessary concerning decisions of consequence to their clients;
9. Monitoring the activities of co-counsel to ensure that schedules are met and unnecessary expenditures of time and funds are avoided;
10. Evaluating all work assigned to other Plaintiffs' counsel in this litigation and allocating and distributing any fees awarded in this litigation to all such counsel in amounts that reflect their relative contributions to the litigation, as solely determined by Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, or to agree and move for the appointment of a Special Master to aid counsel and the Court in allocating and determining any fees and reimbursement of costs;
11. Negotiating settlement with Defendants' counsel, absent a subsequent Court Order; or decision by the Executive Committee appointing a negotiating committee; and
12. Performing such other duties as are necessary in connection with the prosecution of this litigation or as may be further directed by the Court.

Any discussions of a settlement of this litigation shall be conducted by Plaintiffs' Executive Committee and any other counsel that Plaintiffs' Executive Committee may designate. No motion shall be initiated or filed on behalf of any plaintiff in this action except through Plaintiffs' Executive Committee or by leave of the Court.

The Plaintiffs' Executive Committee Chair must promptly serve a copy of this Order and all future orders on counsel for Plaintiffs in each related action not yet consolidated in this proceeding to the extent that Plaintiffs' Executive Committee is aware of any such action(s).

C. Plaintiffs' Executive Committee Chair's Duties and Responsibilities

Plaintiffs' Executive Committee Chair shall assume responsibility to coordinate, schedule, and monitor the activities of the leadership team, as well as to perform other necessary administrative or logistical tasks. He will also be responsible for traditional liaison counsel duties in lieu of the appointment of a formal liaison counsel.

Plaintiffs' Executive Committee Chair shall also assume the following duties: (a) serve as the recipient for all Court Orders; (b) coordinating services and filings; (c) maintain and distribute to co-counsel and to Defendants' Counsel a current service list; (d) make himself (or his designees(s)) available for any telephone conferences convened by the Court and to communicate the substance of any such conference to all other Plaintiffs' counsel; (e) receiving and distributing pleadings, Orders, and motions; (f) maintain and make available to all Plaintiffs' counsel of record at reasonable hours a complete file of all documents served by or upon each party (except as such documents as may be available at a document depository); and (g) to carry out such other duties as the Court may order.

D. Designations, Funding, and Future Changes in Leadership Structure

All appointments to the PEC and PSC are for a period of one year. Each appointee must apply for continued service thereafter, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

These designations are of a personal nature and the Court looks to these counsel to undertake personal responsibility to perform the designated functions. Accordingly, the above appointees cannot be substituted by other attorneys, including members of the appointees' law firms, to perform their functions, such as attending committee meetings and making court appearances, except with prior approval by the PEC and/or the Court, as appropriate. Should any appointee become unable to do so, the Court reserves the discretion to replace counsel on their own request, at the request of the PEC, or on the Court's own motion.

This Court is mindful that counsel within the PEC and PSC will be advancing funding for the litigation and that each of the PEC and PSC members have warranted their ability and willingness to advance such funds as determined necessary by the PEC. The failure of any PEC or PSC member to meet their funding obligations in this litigation, as determined necessary by the PEC, may constitute good cause for their removal from the PEC or PSC.

E. General Responsibilities of Plaintiffs' Counsel

Counsel are expected to familiarize themselves with the Manual, so that they may suggest procedures that will facilitate the "just, speedy, and inexpensive determination" of this Litigation. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 1. These procedures include, but are not limited to, structure and timing of discovery plans, amendments of pleadings, pretrial consideration of substantive issues, communications, and the like. Counsel are also required to review and familiarize themselves with the Local Rules for the Eastern District of New York.

All attorneys carrying out such common benefit work who may look to any common fund or agreement for reimbursement or compensation shall maintain and timely submit time and expense records in accordance with guidelines to be set by the Court in a subsequent Case Management Order. Notwithstanding all such reimbursement and compensation shall be subject to the Court's final approval.

Under no circumstances are the PEC or any member of the PSC responsible for the filings, discovery, or any other issue or matter related to an individual plaintiff's case or claim. More specifically, neither the PEC nor the PSC, nor any individual attorney on the PEC or the PSC, is in any way responsible for the attorney-client relationship and duties and responsibilities that each individual attorney or law firm owe their own client(s) with respect to this litigation.

It shall be the responsibility of all parties and their counsel to stay apprised of the litigation and to review and abide by all orders entered by the Court.

F. Appointment of Rule 23(g)(3) Interim Class Counsel.

Plaintiffs' Executive Committee also satisfies the Rule 23(g)(3) requirements for appointment as Interim Class Counsel. The Court finds, based on the applicants' motion and supporting declarations, that the members of the PEC have demonstrated that they investigated potential claims; have robust experience in handling class actions and other complex litigation; have sufficient knowledge of applicable consumer protection law; and have ample resources to commit to representing the class. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(g). The leadership applications demonstrate to me that these firms have been working cooperatively together to investigate factual and legal claims, and have the requisite experience and resources to litigate the case to trial, if necessary.

SO ORDERED.
